

FSDC Practitioner Speakers Series - Careers in Financial Services

Speaker: Mr. Andrew Butcher
Senior Country Officer, Hong Kong
J.P. Morgan

Andrew Butcher is Hong Kong Senior Country Officer (SCO) for J.P. Morgan. He also serves as a member of the Asia Pacific Management Committee. As SCO, Andrew is the senior representative of the firm in Hong Kong with responsibility for regulatory compliance, management of reputational exposures, government relations and – in partnership with senior line of business leadership – developing and implementing business growth strategies for the location, which also serves as the firm's Asia Pacific headquarters.

Andrew was appointed to the role of SCO for Hong Kong in December 2013. He also served as the firm's Asia Pacific Chief Administrative Officer from 2011 until 2015. Prior to joining J.P. Morgan in August 2011, Andrew spent 23 years at Citigroup in Tokyo, Hong Kong and Singapore after joining Salomon Brothers in 1988. During this time, Andrew was appointed to positions of increased responsibility, including Managing Director and head of Technology & Operations for Asia Pacific in 2008, head of Operations & Technology for the Corporate and Investment Bank in Asia Pacific in 2003 and Chief Administrative Officer for Salomon Smith Barney Asia Pacific in 1999.
