

Michael Long , Director – Sustainability, New World Development.

Michael leads New World's Sustainability Department in shaping the direction and strategies for New World Group's Sustainability agenda, including but not limited to ESG, climate action, sustainable development, sustainable & green finance; reviewing and propagating the New World Sustainability Vision 2030 & beyond.

Michael possesses over 28 years of experience in sustainability and environmental management across Asia as well as in Australia, and has been the Head of Sustainability & Foundation of a multinational conglomerate of real estate development and investment management.