

Mr. Chen is currently the president of Fosun Capital Flagship Fund and co-president of Fosun Capital. He has 21 years of financing and investment experience obtained at several leading global financial institutions, covering commercial banking, capital markets, mergers and acquisitions and investments. He has been dedicated to private equity investments over the past fifteen years.

Prior to joining Fosun, Mr. Chen was Partner and Managing Director, Head of Private Equity of Ally Bridge Group.

Between 2011 and 2014, Mr. Chen was the Head of China for Permira, one of Europe's largest buy-out funds. He made significant contributions to Permira's portfolio companies, such as Valentino, Hugo Boss, Netafim, etc., particularly in the design and implementation of their China strategies and other cross-border value-creation initiatives. Mr. Chen also played a key role in Permira's fund-raising activities in China.

Between 2002 and 2011, Mr. Chen served Goldman Sachs (Asia) in Hong Kong as an Associate and later an Executive Director. In 2006, he led the investment in Shuanghui Group (now WH Group, HK: 00288). He also worked as a core team member in a number of landmark principal investment and advisory transactions including Goldman's investment in Industrial and Commercial Bank of China and HSBC's strategic investment in and the subsequent overseas listing of Bank of Communications.

Prior to joining Goldman Sachs, Mr. Chen was an Executive Trainee at HSBC Group. He was responsible for initiating and monitoring a portfolio of commercial loans extended to leading Chinese corporates.

Mr. Chen holds an MBA degree from Yale University, an MSc degree in Economics from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and a Bachelor degree in International Finance from Fudan University.