

Geoffrey Seeto

Managing Director, New Forests Asia

Geoffrey Seeto oversees New Forests' Emerging Markets nature-based investment program in both Southeast Asia and Africa.

He has more than 20 years' experience in financial services, principally in private equity in the infrastructure, natural resources, and energy sectors. He is an experienced investor in the Asian region, having led, originated, and executed a wide range of transactions in various regulatory regimes. He has completed deals in majority of the Southeast Asian region and China. Outside of Asia, he has worked in North America, Europe, and Australia.

Geoffrey was previously at KPMG, where he was Partner, Asia Infrastructure Markets. Geoffrey was also formerly Managing Director and Head of Investments for the China-ASEAN Investments Fund from 2009-2014 and has held senior positions investing in infrastructure for Babcock & Brown and ABN AMRO. Geoffrey has a bachelor's degree in Economics and a Master of Laws from the University of Sydney.

