

Peter Golovsky
Managing Director, Head of Family Office Services, Asia Pacific,
Alvarium and Co-leader, FSDC HKI Collaboration Working Group

Peter is a chartered accountant with over 25 years' experience in global financial services, including the last 10 years in Hong Kong, leading family office, fiduciary, and investment advisory businesses, working closely as a key adviser to some of Asia's largest families and family offices. Peter is regularly appointed as a non-executive board advisor to the global families he serves. Peter is the Managing Director, Head of Family Office Services, Asia Pacific for Alvarium, a global Multi-Family Office with responsibilities for the organic and inorganic growth of the group across Hong Kong, Singapore, and Australia and its connectedness with Europe and the US.

Peter relocated to Hong Kong in 2011 from his native Australia, where he spent ten years in private wealth and advisory, holding senior positions at both Macquarie and Westpac. Other previous experience included risk management, corporate governance and audit in both Australia and the US with one of the Big 4 accounting firms.

Peter is also a global strategic adviser to the UBS Optimus Foundation, with responsibilities for the set-up of a global impact fund (~US$100m) to support projects that fight against the human trafficking of women and kids globally, now estimated at over US$150bn p.a. and the second largest crime globally.

Peter was raised in Sydney, Australia, is a Chartered Accountant and holds a Master of Commerce (Macquarie University) and a Bachelor of Commerce (UNSW). Peter is married with two children.